LITTLESTOWN MAN DIES OF BULLET WOUND

Leroy Burk, 55, of 71 Crouse Park, Littlestown, died in the Warner hospital at 12:45 a.m. today, nearly 18 hours after he had shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle in the bedroom of his home, state police of the Gettysburg substation, who investigated, said.

The bullet entered the abdomen from the front at about the center, police said. According to the state police version, obtained by questioning Burk, a deaf mute, at the Warner hospital before his death, with the aid of a daughter, Anna, 16, the Littlestown man had arisen at 7 a.m. and picked up the rifle and inserted a cartridge to shoot at some blackbirds.

Police said Burk apparently intended to fire out of his bedroom window. The rifle struck against the bed and was discharged, police said Burk told them. The wounded man went back to bed. His wife, also a deaf mute, and a son, Ronald Roy, 10, still in bed, failed to hear the shot, police said they were told. The daughter had left for work.

Told Wife He Was Ill

Burk, police said, told his wife he was ill. When the daughter returned at noon, Dr. Leonard L. Potter was called. He found the rifle wound, and the Littlestown ambulance was called and brought Burk to the hospital here. An emergency operation was performed later in the afternoon.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, and Sgt. W. Kurt Duhokoff investigated and attributed death to accidental shooting.

Mr. Burk, who came to Littlestown several years ago from Steward, Ohio, was a son of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Crippen Burk. He was a member of Redeemer's Reformed church, Littlestown, and the Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles. He had been employed at the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry company, but underwent an operation in April and had worked only at intervals since that time, police said.

Services Sunday

He is survived by his widow, Esther (Parr) Burk; one daughter, Anna Parr Burk, at home; a son, William McKinley Burk, Oakdale, Pa., and another son, Ronald Roy Burk, at home.

Funeral services Sunday at 2 p.m. from the Little funeral home, Littlestown, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Frank E. Reynolds. Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown. Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday evening.

Local Moose Lodge Adds 11 Members

Eleven new members were accepted into the local Moose lodge at a regular meeting held Thursday evening in the lodge home on York street. Four of the new members were obligated at the meeting immediately following their election.

Total members secured in the recent membership drive was 421 according to reports presented by the officers of the initiation held during the past month. A stag party for all members who secured a member during the membership drive will be held at the Moose home July 27 from 8 o'clock in the evening to 12 midnight, Governor Stephen C. Smith announced.

A contribution to the Girl Scouts to pay for transportation of the scouts to the day camp at South Mountain Fair grounds was voted.

Plans for entering a float in the Sesqui-Centennial parade were outlined and the Hagerstown Moose Drum corps was invited to take part with the float in the parade.

TENTH ANNUAL PARK CAMPFIRE PROGRAMS OPEN

The tenth annual series of campfire programs conducted on Sunday evenings during the summer by the local National Park office will begin this Sunday, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, park historian, announced today.

The program, scheduled to open the series of six weekly campfires, will begin Sunday evening at 9 o'clock at the usual site atop East Cemetery hill.

Dennis Kurjack, of the Hopewell Village National Historical site near Reading, will present an illustrated talk on "Iron Making in the Revolutionary Period" Sunday evening. The Hopewell Village is a restoration of a Colonial period iron making establishment.

Other Programs

July 30, James B. Myers, superintendent of the Manassas National Battlefield site, will speak on the "Two Battles of Bull Run" illustrating the talk with pictures of the Bull Run area.

August 6, "Human Interest Stories of Gettysburg" will be told by Jacob Melchior Sheads, history teacher at the local high school and a historian with the National Park Service, and Doctor Tilberg.

A motion picture in color and sound on the "Jackson Hole National Monument" will be shown August 13.

August 20, a motion picture in sound and color of the Yosemite National Park in California will be shown.

August 27, an illustrated lecture on a trip by boat down the Colorado river will be presented by John Doerr, chief naturalist of the National Park Service.

OBJECTIONS IN SUIT ARE FILED

Preliminary objections have been filed by Robert B. Grove, of South Bend, Ind., formerly of Chambersburg, to a $10,390 damage suit entered in the Franklin county courts against him and three others by Mrs. Miriam A. Carbaugh, of Homer City, formerly of Chambersburg R. 3.

Mrs. Carbaugh, asking the damages for the death of her husband, Bruce C. Carbaugh, in a motorcycle-bicycle collision at Stoufferstown on July 3, 1949, named C. W. Ulrich, of Chambersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kimpke, operators of a taproom in Adams county, near Caledonia park, as defendants in addition to Grove.

In his preliminary objections entered in the county courts, Grove asked that Mrs. Carbaugh's complaint be stricken off the record because her charge that he left the scene of the accident is "scandalous and impertinent matter" in violation of civil court procedures.

Grove, identified as the operator of the motorcycle which struck and fatally injured Carbaugh, also asks that Mrs. Carbaugh be required to present a more specific claim. He noted particularly that Mrs. Carbaugh set forth in her original complaint that she was supported by her husband during his lifetime, yet she gives no facts as to income or employment.

Ulrich, who was a passenger on the motorcycle at the time of the accident, previously filed preliminary objections to the suit in which he generally denied liability.

The Kimpkes are held civilly liable for the accident by Mrs. Carbaugh because of her charge that they served intoxicants to Grove a short time before the fatal accident occurred.

HOOVER REPORT COMMITTEE FOR COUNTY MEETS

Details of the Hoover report on reorganization of the Federal government and ways to organize to promote the enactment of legislation to put the Hoover recommendations into effect were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report held at Graeffenburg inn.

Horace Barnes, head of the department of business administration at Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster, explained that a saving of $4,000,000,000 per year could be effected if the Hoover recommendations for consolidation of governmental agencies was carried out.

He added that the Hoover study of duplication in Federal agencies indicated that not only could consolidation effect tremendous savings, but would provide more efficient administration. Most of the waste comes from overlapping of functions of departments and bureaus set up by various laws at different times, he noted.

Urges Local Activity

Parts of the Hoover recommendations have already been enacted into law, he noted, while other portions have been rejected by Congress. He urged an active committee in each county to inform the public of the various features of the Hoover report, explain its purpose and meaning and how it can be enacted into law to provide more efficient government.

R. W. Livingston, New Oxford, chairman of the Adams county committee and other committee members present agreed that an active campaign to inform the public of the Hoover report should begin in September.

John A. Hauser, chairman of the speakers' committee, reported that he will have a corps of 30 speakers ready to talk to all organizations who wish to have the Hoover report explained at meetings. The 30 will make an intensive study of the commission report in order to be able to explain all features of the reorganization plan proposed by the Hoover committee.

SCHULTZ NAMED TO COMMITTEE

Adams County Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz Thursday was named as a member of the auditing committee of the State Sheriffs' Association at the annual convention held at York.

High point of the convention Thursday was a speech by Governor James H. Duff in which he warned that Pennsylvania will be a prime object of attack in the event of a third world war.

The governor said that Philadelphia and Pittsburgh with their great concentrations of industry would be high on the target list of any attacking force.

"Your responsibility is increased to the degree that we lose the National Guard in Pennsylvania," Duff, told the sheriffs. "You men have the responsibility of preventing sabotage on the home front."

Committee chairmen appointed yesterday include:

Condolences, William T. Courtney, Mercer county; Robert Bacon, Jr., Carbon county; auditing, William G. Groman, Northampton county, and Dorsey J. Schultz, Adams county.

County Youth To Picnic Saturday

Young people belonging to the Sunday schools of Adams county will hold a picnic, under the auspices of the Adams County Christian Youth Council, on Saturday at the Bendersville Community park. The afternoon's program of games and contests will begin at 1:30. Supper, in the form of picnic lunches, will be at 6 p.m. The executive committee of the county council will be in charge of a hillside devotional service in the evening.

In case of inclement weather, the picnic will be postponed indefinitely.

FARM REPORTS GIVEN

Reports on activities of County Agent M. T. Hartman, Assistant County Agent Ira N. Dumire and Home Economics Extension Agent Miss Mary Jane Mickey were presented Thursday evening at a meeting of the executive committee of the Adams County Agricultural Extension association held at the home of the vice president, John Peters, Gardners R. 1.

FARMERS WILL RATE PASTURES ON ADAMS TOUR

Adams county farmers are invited to take part in a tour of the four best pastures in the county on Thursday, July 27. H. L. Sell, chairman of the county Production and Marketing Administration, announced today.

Fifteen pastures have been entered in the annual "green pastures" contest to select the top pastures in the county. Sell said. The pastures have already been judged upon the basis of furnishing sufficient feed of good quality for the normal pasture season, management of pasture area, quality of pasture herbage, the effect of pasture in reducing grain requirements and improvements gained by the application of lime, fertilizer and manure.

Because the farmers taking part in the tour will have a chance to score the pastures on the point system already employed by the judging team, the names of the top pastures were not announced now, Sell said.

Prizes will be awarded to the two farmers judging the pastures who come nearest in points to that of the judging team.

The winner in the county green pasture contest will compete in the area contest leading toward selection of the best pasture in the state.

BOYD REUNION

The annual Boyd reunion will be held Sunday, August 6, regardless of weather, at the South Mountain Fair grounds, Arendtsville. A program of games for all will be offered.

Cling To Hope Gen. Dean, Unreported For Over 24 Hours, "Will Get Out"

An American Command Post in Korea, July 21 (AP)—Fellow officers today held firm hope that Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, unreported nearly 24 hours in the thick of the Taejon fighting, "will get out."

But fear for his safety grew by the hour. The front-line fighting commander of the U. S. Twenty-fourth Infantry division was last reported leading a bazooka team fighting off Red tanks.

Dean's staff tried to reassure themselves with this declaration: "The general can take care of himself. He may have to walk, but he'll get out."

The last report of Dean came from a corporal. He said he saw the general passing ammunition to a bazooka team and directing fire in Taejon. That was several hours before the city fell at midnight Thursday before the blazing tanks of the North Korean Communists.

Said Col. Ralph Vargason of Newark Valley, N. Y., "All of our regular bazooka teams were so busy General Dean took a couple of men down town and went after two tanks. I saw him passing ammunition to the men and directing fire."

Stories of Heroism

The Red tanks moved on Taejon at dawn Thursday. They circled round and round the American command post, firing as they went.

Vargason said he last saw Dean "running a bazooka (rocket launch-

Yorker Is Held For August Court

H. Jay Huff, York real estate dealer, charged by M. O. Diller, Abbotstown, with unlawful conversion, was held for court following a hearing this morning before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. He furnished $1,000 bail.

Diller's complaint charged that the York man was engaged to sell a property in Abbotstown for Diller and was to receive a commission of seven and a half per cent on the purchase price of $2,200. Instead Diller claimed Huff sold the property for $2,800.

At this morning's hearing the York man testified that he sold the property for $2,200, and then resold it for $2,800 to another buyer. Diller claimed that he had been defrauded of $650.

Stock Selling Is Basis For Charge

Paul A. Duane, Cashtown, today faced a charge of failing to register with the Pennsylvania Securities commission as a dealer or salesman in stocks, and is scheduled for a hearing Monday afternoon, July 24, at 2 p.m. before Justice of the Peace John Dubbs, Hanover.

The charge was filed by Joseph A. Jones, representing the state commission, and alleges that Duane sold stocks in Penn township, York county, without complying with section two of the securities law.

The warrant was served on Duane by state police of the Gettysburg substation and he appeared this morning before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to furnish bond. Bail was fixed by Squire Dubbs at $1,500.

5 VAUDEVILLE ACTS FOR FAIR

Five acts of vaudeville have been secured for the South Mountain Fair, the publicity committee announced today.

In addition the Spring Garden band of York has been hired to provide entertainment during the four days of the fair, September 6, 7, 8 and 9.

The vaudeville acts include "The Skating Carters," "Lewis and Oliver Sisters, Acrobats," "The Nuts Brothers," "Juggling and Upright Act" and "Janet's Circus."

Members of the publicity committee include Leslie V. Stock, chairman; LeRoy Zeigler, John Thomas and Paul Osborn. The group is securing posters and signs to be placed in various parts of the county advertising the fair and is scheduling an advertising program on radio and in newspapers.

Eagles' Auxiliary Has 191 Members

Fourteen new members were obligated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the local Eagles lodge at a regular meeting of the unit Thursday night at the Eagles home.

With the addition of the new members, the total membership of the women's organization to date is 191, the auxiliary reported. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Two Truckers Pay Overweight Fines

Two truck drivers paid fines of $50 each to county justices on overweight charges, state police of the Gettysburg substation said today.

Ernest Kibble, Smithport, Pa., paid his fine to Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, and Glenn Smith, "Cincinnati," was fined by Justice of the Peace Warren Dunn, Biglerville.

Donald Hoar, Lemoyne, paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace I. M. Staub, McSherrytown, for driving without an operator's license.

George Groft, Hanover, was fined $5 and costs by Justice of the Peace George Baker, Abbotstown, for a stop sign violation.

IRA D. CROUSE DIES SUDDENLY IN LITTLESTOWN

Ira D. Crouse, 75, Lumber street, prominent businessman for many years in that borough, died suddenly at 9:45 o'clock this morning at the I. D. Crouse and Son Lumber and planing mill in Littlestown. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, pronounced death due to coronary thrombosis.

Mr. Crouse was the senior member of the firm in which his son, Lloyd E. Crouse, Lumber street, a member of the Adams county board of school directors, is associated. He had retired from active participation in the business, however. He was an active member of Redeemer's Reformed church and Sunday school.

Services On Sunday

He was a son of the late Ephraim and Ellen Stair Crouse, and was the last surviving member of his family. His wife, the former Clara Study, died six years ago.

Mr. Crouse leaves two children, his son, who was associated in business with him, and a daughter, Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, Maple street, Littlestown, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services Monday at 10 a.m. from the J. W. Little and Son funeral home, Littlestown, his pastor, Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, officiating. Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening.

INTEREST GROWS IN FARM PONDS IN THIS COUNTY

A steady increase in interest in farm ponds throughout the county is indicated by the weekly report of the Adams County Soil Conservation District released today by John F. Meier, soil scientist for the district.

Farm pond construction was begun during the week on farms of Paul Smith, Gettysburg R. 2, and a second pond is under construction at the Garnet Coble farm, Aspers R. 1.

Pond surveys were made on farms of Leo L. Redding, Gettysburg R. 2; Crowell Bucher, Gettysburg R. 2; Daniel Yingling, Gettysburg R. 3; W. E. Blackwell, Aspers R. 1; C. Childs, Gettysburg R. 1; Arthur Deagon, Gettysburg R. 3; Joel Korver, New Oxford R. 2; C. F. Nittle, Fairfield R. 1; Raymond L. Carson, Gettysburg R. 4; Paul Thomas, Aspers R. 1, and Ray Garber, New Oxford R. 1.

Assist Other Farmers

Planning of a diversion terrace layout was begun on the Russel Stoops farm, Gettysburg R. 2. Construction of a number of diversions was begun on the Michel Loria farm, McKnightstown. A plan was written on the Charles Bretzman farm, Bendersville, emphasizing contour orchards. On the Ira Naugle farm, Orrtanna R. 1, a wood-lot plan was completed and on the C. F. Nittle farm an orchard layout and woodland management program were stressed.

Daniel A. Paddock, veteran agriculture teacher, and R. S. Long, soil conservationist, with John Keith, Gettysburg R. 1, made a survey of the Keith farm. A drainage survey was completed on the Glenn Reaver farm, Gettysburg R. 1, in connection with a pond layout.

Stocking of fish was begun on a number of farm ponds in the county.

24th Division Digs New Defenses Below Taejon; Enemy Delays New Attack

2 VIRGINIANS ARE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Two Virginians were injured at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night when their automobile skidded, struck a tree, bounced off and collided with another automobile and then crashed head-on into another three.

The accident occurred on the Bon-neville road, about two miles south of New Oxford, on a curve, police said.

A car operated by Richard Earl Smarr, 34, of Fairfax R. 2, Va., was traveling north toward New Oxford. It was raining at the time, and Smarr lost control on the curve, ran off the left side of the highway and struck a tree close to the road with the left side of his automobile.

Hit Countian's Car

The car then struck the left front of an automobile being operated by Leo F. Moore, Gettysburg R. 5, and continued up the road until it ran head-on into a second tree. The auto was demolished, state police said.

Smarr suffered a possible concussion and lacerations of the face, arms, hands and legs. He was taken by ambulance to the Hanover hospital.

Clarence Newton, Showalter, 30, of Broadway R. 2, Va., riding with Smarr, was treated by Dr. Samuel A. Kirkpatrick, New Oxford, for a laceration of the left eye.

Damage to Moore's car was estimated at $74. The state police investigation is being continued.

PLAN FLOAT FOR SESQUI PARADE

Committees to arrange for construction of a float for the Sesqui-Centennial parade and to prepare an exhibit for the South Mountain Fair were appointed by President Roland Kime Thursday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Senior Extension club held at Buehler's barn.

Named to the float committee were Robert Mansberger, chairman; John Hoffman, Blanche Sowers and Janet Reinecker. Selected to prepare the exhibit for the fair were Paul Waybright, Thomas Murren, Mary Bower and Helen Martin.

Trip Committee Chairman Harry Hoffman reported that 27 have made reservations so far to take part in the trip planned by the club to the United States Department of Agriculture Experiment station at Beltsville. The bus carrying the party will leave York Springs at 7 a.m. and Gettysburg at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, July 28.

Harriet Geiselman and President Kime led a discussion on personal appearance during Thursday's meeting. Named as the recreation and refreshment committee for August were Mary Jacobs, chairman, Paul Leas, Jr., and Helen Mummert. A campfire meeting will be held August 8 at the home of Teresa Murren, the group decided. Forty-six attended the meeting.

SERVES WITH GUARD

Lt. Col. Paul T. Hayne, 133 West Lincoln avenue, an Army Reserve officer, is on active duty with the X Corps Artillery, Pennsylvania National Guard, during its summer encampment at Indian Gap Military Reservation. Colonel Hayne is assigned to the X Corps artillery headquarters in the Administration section.

U.S. 8th Army headquarters in Korea, July 21 (AP)—Doughboys and air observers said today the Korean Reds used four American marked tanks to surprise two U.S. companies in the battle for Taejon yesterday.

The doughboys knocked out two of the American-starred tanks. Mustang fighters and F-80 jet fighters stopped the others with rockets on a road northeast of Taejon.

Tokyo, July 21 (AP)—America's battered Twenty-fourth Division dug into new defense positions today as North Korea's Red horde, reluctant to move without tanks, failed to follow up its victory at flaming Taejon.

Superior number of Communist tanks, infantrymen and guerrillas won blazing Taejon early today, after two days of fierce and costly attack.

New Weapons Effective

But that victory cost them at least 12 tanks—all knocked out by the GIs' new 3.5 inch rocket launcher—and others damaged.

Late this afternoon, they had failed to launch an expected attack on strong new U.S. defense positions in hills four miles southeast of Taejon. Apparently, said Associated Press Correspondent William R. Moore from a command post in Korea, the Reds "are without tanks now" and are awaiting new armor.

This morning, less than 12 hours after the former U.S. headquarters city was given up, American artillery was trained on mountains where bands of Reds were reported infiltrating.

Presumably, the Reds were beginning to repeat their familiar pattern: Strike around the flank of the American front at supporting positions in the rear.

Await More Armor

However, Moore reported, no new Red attack had been launched by late afternoon.

It will take time, he said, for the Reds to bring in new armor. The Americans destroyed bridges, tunnels, rail lines and highways as they withdrew.

And the Far East Air Forces, in a communique, indicated new tanks may require some time getting to the Taejon area. It said a 500 ton B29 bombing of Seoul Sunday had damaged rail yards and lines so heavily as to "prevent rail movements to the southern battle lines for some time."

Balancing this withdrawal, Allied naval guns destroyed the Communist communications center of Yongdok on the east coast, 25 miles north of the beachhead established Wednesday by the First Cavalry division (mechanized).

Progress of the First Cavalry and the Twenty-Fifth Infantry divisions—which landed earlier this week—was not reported by General MacArthur's communiques.

General MacArthur said the loss of Taejon has "no special significance" from the military point of view. Advanced American headquarters and the provisional government of South Korea had moved from the city several days ago.

DO NOT FAVOR "A"-BOMB USE IN KOREA WAR

Washington, July 21 (AP)—The armed forces, for purely military reasons, take a dim view of suggestions that use of the atomic bomb might end the Korean war quickly. Military officials question whether the A-bomb could produce results in Korea—where there are few good targets for a mass destruction weapon—sufficient to justify dipping into the U. S. atomic arsenal, which is necessarily limited in size.

The Korean fighting is essentially a battle between ground armies, although with air support—and, in the case of our side, with naval support.

The A-bomb could conceivably be used against ground forces.

But to make profitable such use of a weapon so expensive in terms of material, production man-hours and money would require that there be thousands or tens of thousands of troops concentrated in an area a mile or less in radius.

Such concentrations of North Korean troops do not exist. At the front, they are deployed along a straggling line. There are no ports where masses of their men and equipment might pile up.

The use of A-bombs against strategic targets—the centers of war production—is deemed equally impractical, simply because there are almost no targets of strategic importance in Communist North Korea.

Should some bombs be withdrawn from the arsenal and used anyway? That raises the question of how many bombs are available. There never has been any announcement, only indications and unofficial guesses.

One of these came from Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, who was director of the Los Alamos, N. M., laboratory when the first bombs were made. He told a Congressional committee in 1946 that in peacetime 200 bombs could be completed in "maybe a little over a year." By intensive effort, he thought, the United States could "accumulate 1,000 bombs" in two years.

Special Service At Mt. Tabor Church

The Jubilee Gospel Heralds, a group of young people from Providence, R. I., Bible Institute will present a special program of music and message at the Mt. Tabor E. U. B. Church, Gardens R. 2, next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Everett S. Graffam recently appointed assistant to the president of Providence Bible Institute, is in charge of the group. Mr. Graffam was formerly regional secretary of radio station HCJB of Quito, Ecuador; director of large evangelical rallies in western New York state, and vice president of Connecticut Gideons. For several years he has conducted a weekly radio broadcast "Chapel of the Airline" in Batavia, New York.

The service will be set in a framework of music, by Virginia Peters, Nashua, N. H.; Ruth Weiman, Hartford, Conn.; and Eleanor Lewis, Groton, Conn., as vocalists, with Ruth Rihimaki, Quincy, Mass., as accompanist. Solos, duets, and tries will be included in the service.

COUNTY COUPLE WEDS THURSDAY

Miss Loretta Krichen, McSherrystown, and Truman Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norville Beaver, New Oxford, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Sterling Beaver, Westminster, uncle of the bridegroom.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Myler, pastor of the Foursquare Gospel church, in the presence of the immediate families, relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Beaver, Baltimore, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were the attendants.

The bride wore a sheer aqua street length dress and a corsage of yellow roses. The matron of honor wore a yellow linen street length dress and a corsage of sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Beaver home in New Oxford. The bridegroom is employed in a shoe company in Hanover. The couple will reside in an apartment in New Oxford.

Breaks 27-year Silence On Sunday

Cheswick, Pa., July 21 (AP)—A 27-year-old woman who spent her entire lifetime in silence has uttered her first word.

It was a simple word, "Mama," but to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koval a stream of conversation could not have been more miraculous.

Her parents say shy, bright-eyed Helen Koval has been speechless since birth. They said she cried as a youngster, indicating she had normal vocal cords.

Her reluctance to talk ended Sunday. Helen was listening to her sister, Mrs. Mary Lou Maloni, talk on the phone to her. Helen listened, speechless until Mrs. Maloni asked to talk to their mother.

Helen turned and softly cried, "Mama." Mrs. Koval said she wept and begged her daughter to repeat the word again and again. Slowly, Helen complied.

SENT TO JAIL

John J. Leonard, North Wales, Pa., arrested at 7:30 p.m. Thursday by borough police on a charge of panhandling, was committed to the Adams county jail for a hearing later today before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

COUPLED LICENSED

A marriage license was issued at the court house today to Allen Thomas Miller, son of Mrs. Augustus E. Miller, McSherrystown, and Marian Louise Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman William Keeney, Hanover.

LOOKS UP TO SEE DOWN IN EYE EXPERIMENT

Wichita, Kas., July 21 (AP)—He's looking at the world through topsy turvy glasses—and it's making him a bit sick. But Fred J. Snyder, 25-year-old GI graduate student at the University of Wichita, gets over his light spells of nausea quickly.

Snyder is wearing glasses that turn what he sees upside down and cross-wise.

It's part of an experiment attempting to prove that vision is something we learn — just like we learn to walk or to eat.

Snyder's psychology professor said he's have several periods of nausea after putting the strange glasses on, due largely to nervousness.

In effect, Snyder will have to learn to live "diagonally."

"We are going to observe and record what happens to a person when you disrupt his habitual way of looking at things," said Dr. H. N. Pronko, Wichita university psychology professor. "We feel that Fred will adjust to seeing things upside down after a few weeks. That will help strengthen the thesis that we learn to see just as we learn to read, write or eat."

Try 30-Day Test

The experiment, which began yesterday, will continue for 30 days. He'll practice with a peg board—writing, reading, walking straight lines.

When he sees an upside-down hand sticking out toward him from upper left, he's going to have to learn to reach down and to the right to grasp it.

Then—the test over—he's going to have to unlearn it all, when he takes off the special glasses.

Snyder's brother Charles—21 and a Wichita university junior also interested in psychology—will serve as his guide on the campus and on a "shopping trip" up town today. Snyder's going to see how a drug store and a fashionable men's clothing store look, upside down.

If he doesn't get an inverted "greeting" from Uncle Sam, that is. He's an Army reservist.

WOULD EXTEND ENLISTMENTS

Washington, July 21 (AP)—The Senate armed services committee voted unanimously today to take all restrictions off the size of the armed forces and lengthen all enlistments one year.

The House armed services committee also voted, 18 to 1, to keep all enlisted personnel in service for a year after their enlistments expire. It still was considering the request of President Truman to lift ceilings on size of the armed forces.

Rep. Towse (R-N. J.) cast the only vote against extending enlistments. In taking the action on the two bills, the Senate committee also agreed to strike out of one of them a restriction that the strength of the regular Marine Corps shall not exceed 20 per cent of the authorized size of the regular Navy.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) told his colleagues that under present world conditions he does not believe the United States can have too many Marines. The Marines are trained for amphibious landings.

General Electric's Profits Soar In '50

Schenectady, N. Y., July 21 (AP)—The General Electric company's net profit for the first six months of this year soared to $77,445,000—a 66 per cent boost over the same 1949 period, and a new record for a first half-year.

Announcing this last night, GE President Charles E. Wilson said the company and its consolidated affiliates had record net sales of $861,050,000 from January 1 through June 30 this year. The total topped by 10 per cent the previous all-time high of $801,757,000 set in the corresponding 1949 period.

GE's old profit mark for the first six months of a year was $34,602,000 in 1948.

The record sales and earnings brought good news to company stockholders. GE said a dividend of 60 cents a share of common stock would be paid July 25 for the second quarter of this year. This brings the total dividend for the six months to $1.20 a share.

Abcard Seventh Fleet Carrier off Korea, July 19 (Delayed)—(P)—Pilots of carrier launched warplanes today reported indications of radar controlled anti aircraft fire at Wonsan. They just had bombed the big industrial port city in North Korea, about 80 air miles north of the 38th parallel.

For two days U.S. and British Navy jets, Corsairs and attack fighter bombers flew 227 sorties against North Korea targets.

Moscow, July 21 (AP)—Moscow's press and radio gave top play today to President Truman's message to Congress and declared it proved America is laying the groundwork for World War III. The report, carried in a Tass dispatch from Washington, said "Truman admits the United States is strengthening its preparations for war, both in Europe and on the American continent."

Gov. Duff Calls For Strike Settlement

Harrisburg, July 21 (AP)—Gov. James H. Duff appealed today to bus operators and union officials to settle a bus strike in the Pittsburgh district because "of the present critical national emergency."

The governor sent this telegram to both bus and union officials: "In view of the present critical national emergency earnestly urge you and all parties in interest to negotiate settlement of bus strikes in the Pittsburgh area."

"These strikes seriously effect production. All of us must do everything in our power to keep production at maximum. You can render great public service by settling your differences and providing the transportation facilities immediately necessary for maximum productive effort."

Truck Driver Held In Highway Death

Carlisle, Pa., July 21 (AP)—A 22-year-old Chicago truck driver was held in Cumberland county jail here today on charges of assault and battery by vehicle in the death of a Bedford county hitchhiker.

State police arrested Gerald Lyle Peters after he reported finding the body of Isaac Corrie, about 37, of Defiance, lying in the road about one-half mile west of the Carlisle interchange of the Pennsylvania turnpike.

Police said Peters reported he was driving east on the turnpike when he saw the body of Corrie lying in the road about 50 feet ahead. Unable to stop, Peters straddled the body with his tractor trailer, police quoted him as saying.

Dr. E. A. Haegle, Cumberland county coroner, said Corrie died of a crushed chest and fractured skull.

6th Marine Infantry Is Ordered To Duty

Philadelphia, July 21 (AP)—Marines in the Sixth Infantry Battalion, Organized Reserve, today were ordered to active duty. They will leave the Philadelphia Naval base for an undesignated training base on July 31.

Col. E. S. Laue, director of the Fourth Marine Reserve district, said the call includes Marines at the battalion headquarters at Philadelphia and in Company B (Baker), Reading.

Col. Laue said the number of men included in the call cannot be made public. He said that members of the First 155th MM. Howitzer Battalion and Company D, Altoona, have been alerted to expect a call to active duty but that call has not yet gone out.

The colonel invited any former Marine with 90 days service to enlist in the Sixth Battalion, Organized Reserves, and join the others going on active duty.

SCHEDULE GAME

Brushtown and Green Springs will play off a South Penn. league game this evening at 6:15 o'clock at Green Springs.

400 AT PICNIC FOR SHRINERS

More than 400 Shriners, their wives and families attended the annual picnic of the Adams County Shrine club at the Gettysburg Country club Thursday afternoon and evening.

Entertainment included two vocal numbers, "The Italian Street Song" and "The Little Red Schoolhouse," by the Misses Sieglind L. and Ladora S. Miller, of Hanover. The Hanover Patmos band furnished music for the various events.

Golfing, swimming and dancing were provided for the adults and entertainment for the children included a chicken race, bubble gum scramble and a balloon race. David Weikert, of Gettysburg, won the chicken race.

Among out-of-town guests were the following Zumbo Shrine officers: Robert M. Mumma, illustrious potentate; Samuel Wilson, Woodie Woodford, Paul Swab, Nelson Shuey and George Hepford, president of the Zumbo Luncheon club, all of Harrisburg. Mr. Mumma spoke briefly, announcing a family picnic at Hershey August 25 for Shriners in this area.

The picnic at the country club was arranged by Sydney J. Poppay, club president; S. Lester Scott, chairman of the steward committee, and William R. Swisher, chairman of the program committee. A baked ham picnic supper was served by Banker's.

Vessels was one of the many teenage heroes who fought their way out from Taejon in the night. These kids who fled throughout the night and were happy to escape with their lives were not defeated. They came through a night of death and fire like heroes. The inspiration of real leadership was plain in the way they talked and acted today.

Dean, that leader, had a record of fearless fighting. Both in World War II and in the Korean war he exposed himself to enemy fire to lead his men.

A few days ago he pulled some of his front line troops out of the fire in heavy fighting near the Kum river by a personally led attack.

Dean, who was awarded a distinguished service cross in World War II for bravery, was well liked by his men. The tall, rusty haired general put his fighting before his personal safety. The 50-year-old officer served as military governor of Korea from 1947 to 1949 and temporarily was commander of U. S. Army forces in Korea.

GAME POSTPONED

The New Oxford-Littlestown game in the Adams County Baseball league to be scheduled to be played at Littlestown Thursday evening was postponed due to west grounds.

Sidney Jay Myers, York Springs, a senior in architectural engineering at Pennsylvania State college, today was cited by Dr. Harry P. Hammond, dean of the school, for outstanding scholarship during the spring semester. To be named to the dean's list students must complete the semester with an average of 2.50 or better out of a possible 3.00.

REDS CONTINUE PAGE; DEFEAT DODGERS TWICE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Shades of 1914 Can Luke Sewell perform a miracle at Cincinnati?

You have to stretch a point to call seventh-place Cincinnati, 11½ games out of first, a pennant factor. But you can tip your hat to Sewell for the Red revival. The man who only led the St. Louis Browns to their only pennant doesn't quit.

Last by 17 lengths June 24, the Reds may not qualify as the 1950 miracle team but they sure are the Dodger-killers. If Branch Rickey muffs the pennant, he came blame Cincy.

The sizzling Reds polished off the ambitious Brooks last night in both ends of a twilight-night double-header, 3-1 and 6-2. That made it eight out of 11 over the Dodgers this season and 19 wins in their last 25 starts. Or, if you prefer, 21 of 29.

Kenny Raffensberger's cunning control stuff silenced the Brooks in the opener despite Don Newcombe's five-hitter. Then Ewell (The Whip) Blackwell struck out nine in a sizzling night performance. Neither Cincy pitcher walked a man.

Ted Kluszewski was the big man of the first game. His first-inning single drove in one of two Cincy runs and his 17th homer in the sixth added the last.

Error Is Fatal
Blackwell bested young Chris Van Cuyk, a sensational winner in his only previous big league start. Van Cuyk left with the score tied, 2-2, and two men on in the seventh. Joe Landrum walked the bases full. Then Landrum took Bobby Usher's roller and threw to catcher Bruce Edwards, who let the ball get past him for a two-run error. Joe Adcock singled home the other two.

As a result, the Dodgers are three full games back of St. Louis and Cincy is only a half-game back of the sixth place New York Giants. While Cincinnati lowered the boom on Brooklyn, the New York Giants bounced back to smother St. Louis, 13-3. The loss didn't cost the Cardinals the lead but narrowed their advantage over Boston and Philadelphia to a single game.

The rained-out Braves didn't have a chance to gain and the Phillies missed their opportunity, bowing to Pittsburgh, 10-8, in a slugfest that lasted almost three hours. Ted Beard, Gus Bell and Danny O'Connell each had three hits in the 16-hit attack.

Despite homers by Dick Sisler, Granny Hamner and Del Egnis, Pittsburgh struggled home to win for reliever Murry Dickson. Ralph Kiner's 27th homer off Russ Meyer in the eighth helped nail it down.

Giants Thump Cards
Leo Durocher's Giants really got revenge for the 18-4 and 10-3 beatings of Wednesday as they piled it up against the Cardinals with an eight-run third inning. Dave Koslo, a non-winner since June 29, capped his ninth with a nine-hitter. Five double plays and 16 Giant hits, including three by Don Mueller, made it easy.

Everybody closed in on the Detroit Tigers yesterday when they lost to Boston, 6-5, in 11 innings. The runner-up New York Yankees, not scheduled to play, gained a half game. Cleveland and Boston each picked up a full game.

Dom DiMaggio's double off Art Houtteman scored Billy Goodman with the winning Red Sox run to cap an uphill struggle. Detroit did all its scoring off Walt Masterson before he was knocked out in the fourth inning. After that Chuck Stobbs and Ellis Kinder pitched excellent relief. Pat Mullin bashed an inside-the-park homer for Detroit with a man on in the third and Walt Dropo hit his 24th for the Red Sox in the fourth. The Sox pulled within one of a tie on Bobby Doerr's 13th homer in the eighth and evened matters in the ninth on two walks and Vern Stephens' single.

A's Bow Again
Sam Zoldak and Bob Kennedy teamed up on Philadelphia for Cleveland's 3-2 victory in 11 innings. As a result the Tribe is only 4½ games back of Detroit.

Kennedy tied the score with a homer off Alex Kellner after two were out in the ninth. Zoldak, who replaced Steve Gromek in the seventh, shut out the A's with two hits the rest of the way and drove in Kennedy with a "bloop" single to left in the 11th. Kennedy scored all three runs.

Rain postponed the scheduled night game between Chicago and Washington. It also washed out the daytime game in the National between Boston and Chicago.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, July 21 (AP)—Some new slants on minor league baseball, mostly from the prexy of a "half free, half slave" bush circuit.

His big trouble seems to be that the farm operators have made Class "D" baseball so expensive the independents can't compete. . . . And now, realizing their own losses, they've begun to reduce their chains and that only makes things worse.

Since cutting-down time, they've been shipping players of Class B, A and even Triple A quality into his "D" circuit. . . . The unsponsored clubs can't get that kind of athletes and if they did, they couldn't pay them. . . . Salary limits are based on paying Class D kid about $125-150 a month. . . . The higher-rank club that farms them out absorbs the difference, sometimes as much as $375. . . . "That makes him a $500 a month athlete—some pay for a D loop, I'd say," the prexy adds. . . . But just to show there's another side, the Brooklyn farm system, for one, has shipped 50 players to non-connected clubs this season.

ONE FOR THE BOOKS
At Sewanee, where football has been so thoroughly decontaminated that it makes the sanity code look sinful, one of the ardent bench warmers is a history professor, Thomas P. Govan. . . . Last fall he watched one of his history students sweating faithfully each afternoon but seldom getting into a scrimmage and never into a game. . . . Finally the prof turned to Head Coach William C. White and said: "Coach, I believe Joe Blank would do a little better on history if he got into a game once in a while."

Next game, sure enough, Joe was in the starting lineup. . . . Coach White swears it was due to abnormal improvement—but we wonder what happens if a good player is having a little trouble making the history varsity.

THUMB FUN
When Fresno Thompson, the Dodgers' minor league club chief, was managing New Orleans a few years ago, he took exception to an umpire's interpretation of a rule. . . . As Fresno charged out, the ump reached into his hip pocket for the rule book. . . . Thompson fixed him with a scornful look and remarked: "Don't tell me they print those things in Braille!" . . . P.S.: It was nice and cool under the shower.

EDDIE SAWYER SAYS PHILS WILL KEEP FIGHTING

By GIB STALEY

Pittsburgh, July 20 (AP)—Baseball fans in Philadelphia can relax now. Manager Eddie Sawyer of the Philadelphia Phillies says his whiz kids will be in the thick of the National league pennant race all the way.

Is Sawyer worried that his kids have fallen off the pace slightly? They've lost seven of their last 10 games. Let the scholarly manager tell you:

"No, I'm not worried. We'll get out of this slump satisfactorily. We were due for a slump and that's all there is to it. There's not an outstanding team in the league as far as I am concerned and the Phillies will give everyone plenty of trouble all the way.

An Uphill Battle
"Will we win the pennant? Well, I didn't predict that at the start of the season and I'm not predicting anything yet. Cincinnati beat Brooklyn twice last night. Well, that's interesting. Don't worry about my kids, they'll be in there fighting for every ball game."

Sawyer realizes as well as anyone else that his club will have an uphill battle to best out the other three top contenders, St. Louis, Boston and Brooklyn. And he's working against a tough schedule which has seen the whiz kids play seven games in the last five days.

Not only that, but Philadelphia has eight games scheduled in the next five. They close out a four-game series tonight with the Pittsburgh Pirates and need a win to get an even break. On Saturday and Sunday they'll play twin bills at Cincinnati, come back to Pittsburgh for a night game Monday with the Pirates and return to Philadelphia Tuesday for a two-night double-header with Chicago.

To Lose Simmons
"We're being double-headed to death but that's just the breaks of the schedule," Sawyer said. "There's no question that we've got our work cut out for us. I've got an inexperienced ball club but the one compensating factor is that the kids are trying all the time."

A big blow to the Phillies will be the loss of bonus pitcher Curt Simmons who will leave the team for two weeks the latter part of July to participate in regular training of the Pennsylvania National Guard. Simmons has a 12-5 record.

Game Postponed

Announcement was made today that the Barlow-Gettysburg game in the South Penn league scheduled to be played here this evening has been postponed.
Conflict with the Softball league schedule was given as the reason for the postponement.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
The Utica Blue Sox, whose Eastern league franchise is being spirited away, did some stealing themselves last night as they edged the league-leading Wilkes-Barre Indians, 3-2.

Rain and wet grounds blotted out the rest of the schedule. As a result, Scranton will play a twin bill to night at Binghamton and Elmira will try twice at Hartford. The third rained-out tilt was at Albany, where Williamsport plays a single tonight.

At Utica, Bill Fogg hurled a six-hitter while his mates collected all their runs by stealing home. The guilty parties were Chuck Hood, Joe Mayer and Joe Buzas. One steal involved a balk, another was a double theft and the third was the result of a rundown.

Meanwhile, there were indications the Utica franchise would be moved by the parent Philadelphia Phillies either to Reading, Pa., or to New Haven, Conn.

At Lima, Ohio, Joe Reardon, director of the Phillies farm system, indicated that on the basis of TV and radio surveys, Reading was a slight favorite to get the club.

Softball Twin Bill Saturday Evening

A double-header softball schedule faces the all-star team of the local league here Saturday evening on the Recreation field.

The D. and L. garage team of Harrisburg will be met in the opening game at 7:15 and the Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot aggregation will be engaged in the arc-light tilt.

Managers Johnny Knex and Ralph Johnson request that all league players selected for previous games report at the Recreation field early Saturday evening.

A big blow to the Phillies will be the loss of bonus pitcher Curt Simmons who will leave the team for two weeks the latter part of July to participate in regular training of the Pennsylvania National Guard. Simmons has a 12-5 record.

BRUSHTOWN TO FACE LOCAL 9 HERE SUNDAY

A total of 21 games in baseball leagues of which local and county teams are members is scheduled to be played over the week-end.
Rogers Herr's Gettysburg team of the South Penn league will meet Brushstown here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

This evening the locals will play a postponed game with Barlow on the local field at 6:30 o'clock.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
The Interstate league pennant race is turning into a red hot battle involving five of the eight clubs. Eight and a half games separate the fifth place Allentown Cardinals and the front running Wilmington Blue Rocks.

Second place Hagerstown is only one game in back of Wilmington. Trenton is four games further back and the fourth place Harrisburg Senators are six games behind Wilmington. Harrisburg picked up ground last night by taking both ends of a twin bill from the seventh place Lancaster Red Roses, 3-1 and 1-0.

Allentown helped its standing by taking a 4-3 10-inning decision from the Sunbury Athletics. The winning run came on Everett Joyner's homer.

Wilmington was beaten by the sixth place York White Roses 5-2. York wrapped up the contest with a four-run outburst in the third inning on three hits. Third place Trenton and the runner-up Hagerstown Braves were rained out.

Tonight's schedule: Wilmington at York, Trenton at Hagerstown, Harrisburg at Lancaster and Sunbury at Allentown.

SOFTBALL TONIGHT

Rain forced postponement of the two games scheduled for Thursday evening in the Softball league. Tonight the Lentz Legion will meet the Moose at 7:15 and the Stanton Legion will clash with the Texas Lunch in the nighttime.

STATE ASKS BIDS

Harrisburg, July 21 (AP)—The General State Authority today called for bids August 23 for construction of a new nurses' home at the Norristown State hospital. The four-story, T-shaped brick structure will provide housing facilities for 150 nurses and supervisors, with space also for a nurses' training school.

Potatoes dug too early will not keep well.

GOLD SENTENCE BEING DELAYED

Philadelphia, July 21 (AP)—Harry Gold, 39-year-old former Philadelphia research chemist was back in his prison cell today after pleading guilty to atomic spying on behalf of Soviet Russia.

U. S. District Judge James P. McGranery delayed sentence pending an investigation by the federal probation office. The judge indicated that the sentence may be handed down in September.

Gold, the first American formally to admit delivering atomic secrets to Russia, said the word "guilty," three times as he stood before the bench yesterday.

His first answer was to the general charge of conspiracy to violate the federal espionage act, his second to the 11 specific charges of spy acts and his third to a form re-reading of the full indictment.

Arrested here May 23, Gold was linked by the FBI with the atomic spy ring that included Dr. Klaus Fuchs, British scientist now serving 14 years in prison for treason, and agents of the Soviet government.

Gold was indicted by a federal jury in Brooklyn on June 9 on charges of serving as a spy courier on 11 occasions during 1943 and 1944. Gold is being held in $100,000 bail at Holmesburg prison pending his sentence.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

On my way to my Nova Scotia island retreat, I ran into a group of weekly newspaper editors, representing forty American states. I talked with many of these intelligent and interesting editors, and it took me back to my youth, where the weekly newspaper office held particular fascination for me. It was in them that my first smell of printer's ink got me!

People are apt to ignore the influence of these papers that represent the small communities, but they exert a powerful influence on American life, as well as in other countries where they are published. These editors have sound ideas and publish papers that are read, not merely skimmed, as so many of the larger publications are.

The weekly newspaper is the weekly Bible of information to every member of its subscribing number. It stays on the family table until the next issue is received. And its subscribers treat it as a friend. They talk frankly to it, and enter with a whole heart into all that it advocates for the public good. It can well be called the family mouthpiece.

I was brought up on many of these excellent weekly publications, and was given my first demonstration of "printer's lice" in one of them, by a kindly, somewhat roughish compositing. They are a friendly lot, these editors, and men of high character. Many a worker on them has graduated to notable places on the larger dailies, and I am sure that they often think back in a nostalgic manner to those other days.

The backbone of every nation is its small towns and villages, where these weekly newspapers circulate. They do not make a great deal of money, as a rule, but they demonstrate to their readers the higher values of life. Many of these newspapers often have a difficult time to keep going in times as we now experience, but they always seem to have the extra courage and resourcefulness that do not fail them.

The weekly newspaper is an honored institution, and may its influence and usefulness never be erased!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Lafayette Hearn." Protected, 1950, by The George Matthews Adams Service

ONCE MORE A FAN I'd almost forgotten the name and the face
Of the man on our losing team playing first base.
The player at second I couldn't recall.
Today if you'd ask me I'd tell you them all.
I didn't like baseball when seventh we ran,
But now the team's winning I'm back as a fan.My cheers are for heroes, not fellows who lose.
For errors and strike outs I've nothing but boos.
Though baseball's a game that I loved as a boy,
As a man only victories I can enjoy.
Now, ask me who's hitting and tell you I can,
For since the team's winning I'm back as a fan.Though a cheer might have heartened some youngster last year,
With no chance for the pennant why go there to cheer?
I'm all for success, I hold victory sweet,
And I haven't much heart for the sting of defeat.
But loyal I've been since the season began,
For now the team's winning I'm back as a fan.

SEES NEW RED SKULLDUGGERY AFOOT ABROAD

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Red skullduggery of some sort is at work in the always mysterious and fiery Balkans.

It is anybody's guess whether this presages armed conflict in that cockpit of southeastern Europe or is merely a war of nerves. However, it seems to be working up to a climax rapidly, and it has the United Nations and the foreign offices of the democracies anxiously burning midnight oil.

For many weeks now eastern Europe has been seething with reports of provocative incidents. These have been aimed mostly at Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia—the bad lad of communism.

Charges Fly
Belgrade has charged that Romania was carrying out suspicious military movements along the Yugoslav border—that Hungary was forcibly removing civilians along the Hungarian-Yugoslav frontier—that Russia was pursuing a war-mongering campaign against Yugoslavia—that the Soviet Union actually was moving troops in neighboring Bulgaria and building military bridges across the Danube.

One of the most arresting of this grim procession of reports came out of Turkey only a few days ago. This was that there was growing Russianization of Bulgarian military forces and that there were increasing troop movements on the Macedonian frontier.

Rather naturally speculation among observers in Istanbul turned on the question of whether the Bulgarians were getting set to conquer Yugoslav and Greek Macedonia and unite it with Bulgarian Macedonia. This thought fits in with the current warning from the United Nations Balkan committee, reporting from Switzerland, that the Russian-led cominform may be planning an attack on Greece. And what would be the significance of such an operation?

Would Divide Energies
Well, for one thing it would create another great conflagration for the United States and the other western allies to deal with. It would compel them to divide their military energy between the Asiatic upheaval and Europe.

However, that isn't the whole story. If a Bulgarian attack on Greek and Yugoslav Macedonia were successful it would be a serious territorial loss to Greece and Yugoslavia, as well as a blow to prestige. It not only would add to Bulgaria's size

Bar Explosives From Pike Tunnels

Harrisburg, July 21 (AP)—Explosives are banned from the Pennsylvania Turnpike's tunnels. The Turnpike commission, issuing the order yesterday, said it will take effect on July 28.

Up to now, vehicles carrying loads of inflammables or explosives were permitted use of the seven tunnels between midnight and eight a.m. each day, except holidays and holiday week-ends. A precaution added in 1943 made it necessary to clear the tunnels of all other traffic when vehicles carrying these products went through.

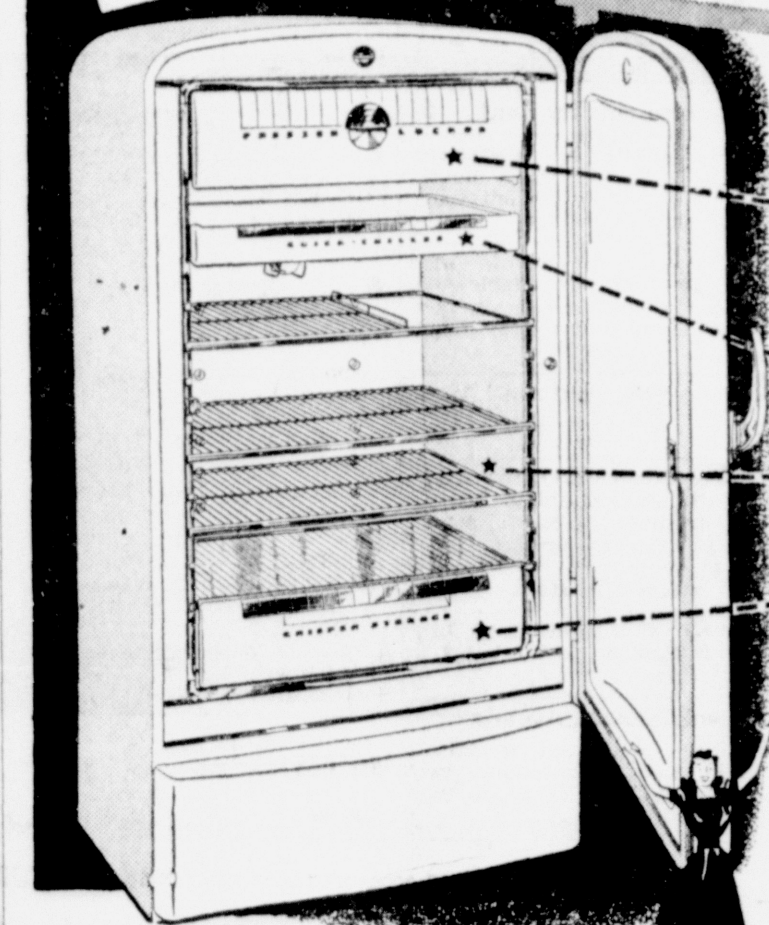

This plan created a hazard and delay for other traffic because vehicles were detained on the paved surface approaching the tunnel portals, the commission said.

It added that traffic has increased to such "enormous proportions" in recent years that as a safety measure and to expedite traffic it is necessary to exclude vehicles loaded with explosives and inflammables.

and strength but would give her direct access to the Aegean sea.

Of course no overlordship would be acceptable to the Macedonians. They are a liberty loving folk who have fought fiercely for their independence through the generations. Still, one would suppose that they would rather be united under one overlord than be split up among three, as at present. On that basis they might even give their support to a Bulgarian military operation which would unite them.

All the foregoing may provide the stage setting for a so-called Communist party convention which is being held now in eastern Berlin. This has brought together Red leaders from 18 nations and many of them belong to the powerful cominform.

MACHINERY FOR HOME DEFENSE BEING READIED

Harrisburg, July 21 (AP)—The Commonwealth is ready to recruit immediately a home-front state guard force of 18,000 men if Pennsylvania's National Guard troops are called to active duty.

Major Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said today machinery to re-activate the old state guard would be set in motion at once if National Guard troops are federalized.

Weber said the state guard force would be composed mainly of men who are not qualified otherwise for duty with the armed forces.

Recruiting would be done on strictly a volunteer basis so far as possible, Weber emphasized.

"In my opinion," he said, "I don't think we will have to draft men when and if a state guard organization is needed."

If, however, it would be necessary to resort to the draft, Gov. James H. Duff has full power to exercise this means. It was given to him in amendments to the state military code passed by the 1949 general assembly.

Replace National Guard
The purpose of the state guard would be to replace the National Guard in handling interior security matters of the Commonwealth.

The state guard was first established during World War II, under the administration of former Governor Arthur James. It was first called the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps. Former Gov. Edward Martin who succeeded James, changed the name to State Guard and later to the Pennsylvania State Guard.

It was inactivated on June 27, 1947, after more than five years service. The first commander of the State Guard was Brig. Gen. Robert M. Vail, former state adjutant general. Maj. Gen. Milton G. Baker, of Wayne, was commander at the time of its inactivation.

The state military code permits the Governor at his discretion to order an enrollment of all persons liable to militia service by volunteer or draft.

In case of a draft, the Governor would name a three-man civilian board to be aided by National Guard officers to carry out the draft procedure. It would be empowered to use the facilities of the State Selective Service system. All men between 18 and 45 are automatically eligible for service in the State Guard.

Prefer War Veterans

Weber said, however, that only men between 32 and 40 probably would be asked to serve. The age would be raised from time to time to correspond with a lifting of regular armed forces draft standards. The recruits would be persons who are exempt from regular military duty because of physical disabilities, over-age or because of dependents. World War II veterans would be preferred.

The officers would be chosen mainly from among persons who previously held commissions in the armed services.

Present plans call for a State Guard force of 18,000 men. This would include six regiments of 2,500 men each, and another 3,000 supporting troops such as doctors and other specialists.

The State Guard would undergo weekly training periods the same as National Guard troops now undergo, would use state armories as their headquarters. They also would attend annual summer training camps. They also would receive compensation for their training periods.

ON PARTY LINES

Washington, July 21 (AP)—Pennsylvania's Senators followed party lines yesterday as the Senate voted to accept a subcommittee report which denounced Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) for his charges of Communism in the government. Senator Myers (D.) voted with the majority. Senator Martin (R.) opposed the report.

RADIO

New York, July 21 (AP)—If the present rate of production continues a total of 9,000,000, and possibly 10,000,000 television sets is anticipated by the experts for the end of the year. This is quite a boost over original predictions of a 6,000,000 total by 1951—a figure already exceeded.

The forecast total has been raised several times lately as the high output continues into the summer. Present production figures run close to a half-million a month. Manufacturers say defense demands would be the only factor that might bring about a change.

The greatest concentration of receivers is in the New York area, where the present total is well over a million, or equal to more than a third of the radio sets in that zone.

SAMUEL, THE UPRIGHT JUDGE

Memory selection: Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him and did let none of his words fail to the ground. I Samuel 3:19.

To employ a familiar figure, Samuel stands out like a lofty peak in a range of mountains. There is a succession of eminent men in the Old Testament record but few, if any, were greater than the last of the Judges. Some were more conspicuous, some had more dramatic careers, but none surpassed Samuel in rectitude of character. The story of his life and achievements of his administration have interest, but the chief value lies in what we may learn that will help us to unravel the tangled life of our day.

Samuel lived in a period of change. In training the people for righteousness in his Kingdom God called on men for special crises. He called Abraham; directed Moses, administered fair dealing through Samuel. By means of such agents the Lord directed movements and carried out his will. "New occasions teach new duties." It was so with Israel. When Samuel was old and his work burdensome he appointed his one to take his place. They failed. Because of this and also because of the growing sentiment among the people for a king, Samuel was divinely instructed to find and install a man to this high office. Saul was selected. So ended the administration of the first of the great prophets after Moses. One reason for the change, no doubt, was the need for united action by the tribes of Israel against the ever-threatening Philistines.

Return Unto The Lord

The people of Israel were fearful of the Philistines. What should they do? Judge Samuel has the answer: "Return unto the Lord with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods." That counsel is wise for an emergency in any generation. Also, it is good advice whether confronted by a crisis or not.

We live in a day of crisis. The first step should be a thorough self-examination: the next would be repentance—a returning to God. For no nation is entirely free of wrongdoing, just as no individual is without sin. Wisdom and clear-thinking will come to the humble and repentant man—and nation. Even military strength, if that is required, will be greater for those who honestly endeavor to work out a threatening catastrophe with God. Let the wave of interest in religion which has begun in our country continue until our sins have been confessed and our "false gods" put aside. Then are we really strong and need not be afraid.

A Judge Plus

Samuel was a circuit judge and held court at Bethel, Gilgal and (Please Turn to Page 8)

THE OLD ADAGE

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren—they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches—then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CE Society Holds Outing In Grove

An outing was enjoyed on Wednesday evening in the church grove by the Christian Endeavor society of Christ Reformed church. The early party of the evening was spent by playing softball and on a scavenger hunt. A luncheon was served in the church grove auditorium after which a program was presented. Mervin K. Myers presided over the program. A song quiz was conducted with Miss Lucille Shoemaker playing the piano accompaniment. It was won by Mrs. LeRoy W. Berwager, who identified the most songs.

Glenn Unger, president, stated that the group will participate in the Adams County Christian Endeavor Union picnic on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock in the Arendtsville park. A basket lunch will be served. A song service followed with Miss Shoemaker playing the accordion and Glenn Unger as chorister. Ralph Unger read the Scripture and offered prayer. The program closed with the Friendship Circle, the Lord's Prayer and the Christian Endeavor benediction. This outing which was attended by 33 members marks the close of the local society activities until September 3. The program committee for this event included Mervin K. Myers, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Unger, Wilbert Messinger, Janet Gerrick, Lucille Shoemaker and Fred Warner.

Sunday School Lesson

Mizpah. He was not elected to the office as one thinks of election in our day. He was accepted by the people. By the time he was a young man his reputation for uprightness had spread through the land. When the sons of the presiding judge Eli, now aged, proved themselves unworthy as his successors the people knew that "Samuel was chosen to be a prophet of the Lord."

Such high character did not just happen. It rarely does. His mother, Hannah, prayed for a boy child and vowed that if favored, she would him to the Lord. So the child was taken to the temple and duly consecrated. He became assistant to Eli and lived in temple quarters. His mother brought him clothing. We may be sure she offered many a prayer and gave her son helpful counsel. The mothers of great men have much influence in molding character.

Samuel was a model public servant, one whose personal character and career may well be studied by all men holding public office. He was always ready for divine guidance and eager to follow it. From his youth he had what we call "religious experiences." He carried his religion into the public life and that accounted for the fair and effective leadership he gave his people. Not in the spirit of boastfulness did he challenge anyone to "witness against me before the Lord." In all his long career he never took a bribe nor defrauded or oppressed anyone. In addition to rigid honesty his administration was one of practical wisdom. In our troubled times we need more men of high moral character and devotion who, like Samuel, will accept the responsibilities of public office.

Questions On The S. S. Lesson 1. Who was the last judge? 2. What was his additional calling? 3. Who helped mold his character? 4. What did Samuel demand? 5. Where did Samuel hold court? 6. Whom did he anoint as king? 7. Of what is Samuel an example?

Answers

1. Samuel.
2. Prophet.
3. Hannah.
4. Repentance.
5. At Bethel, Gilgal, Mizpah.
6. Saul.
7. Honest and wise public official.

KINGSDALE'S FIRE CARNIVAL BEING PLANNED

Plans are progressing for the second annual carnival of the Kingsdale Fire company, which will be held August 21 to 26 inclusive on the Walter F. Crouse property along the Littlestown-Taneytown road at the Kingsdale intersection. There will be games, rides, exhibits, concessions, a big party and cake walks. Cash prizes will be awarded. On Saturday, August 26, a thousand-pound steer, a 500-pound steer and eight other prizes will be awarded.

The ox roast supper was a popular feature of the carnival last year, and will, therefore, be repeated this year. It will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary on Friday, August 25, beginning at 6 p.m. and on Saturday, August 26, beginning at 4 p.m. These suppers will be served under shelter. Throughout the period of the carnival, the Ladies auxiliary will have home-made pies, chicken corn soup, hot chicken sandwiches and all kinds of sandwiches on sale.

Bathing Beauty Contest Charles Ecker, general chairman of the carnival has announced the following program of entertainment: Monday, the 101 Ranch Boys from radio state, WSBA; Tuesday, Mike and his Twilight Entertainers (Harmony Sweethearts and Black Face comedians); Wednesday, Martinez Animal circus, famous television animals. These animals played in New York city during the winter of 1949-1950.

A bathing beauty contest, which was also a popular event last year, will be conducted again this year on Thursday, August 24. Miss Esther Crouse will be in charge. Details of this contest will be announced later.

Friday, August 25, Ray Snow and his German band from Harrisburg will entertain, and on the closing night, Saturday, August 26, the Littlestown high school band will present a concert.

Walter F. Crouse, president of the fire company, has announced that there will be plenty of free parking every night.

CARNIVAL DELAYED

Due to rain, the Ocker Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, was unable to start its carnival on Thursday night. The carnival will open tonight when the Pee-Wee Riley Rangers Riders from radio station WHVR will be the entertainers. Saturday evening, the entertainment will be furnished by the William F. Myers band, Westminster. A number of amusements have been provided, as well as a variety of games. Refreshments will be on sale.

Extra large, extra small and misshapen eggs should not be set for hatching.

No, the eye does not tell everything—not in this instance. True, it tells you ROADMASTER is smart. It tells you it's big. It shows, if you watch closely, that this brawny beauty rides level and unperturbed even when road-roughness has its wheels fairly dancing. A glance may even indicate how much lolling comfort there is here—what wide-open freedom passengers and driver know in this gay traveler. But how can the eye tell you how you feel touching off the great power that's under this broad bonnet? How can it reveal the silken, swift-mounting surge of oil-cushioned take-off—smooth, silky, unbroken, as Dynaflo Drive works its magic? Even when you watch a ROADMASTER settle down to a long steep pull and crest the top going away, how can it tell you what thrill your spirits get from such ability? And what can it say of the lift that's yours traveling in a beauty that catches all eyes, swivels passing heads, marks you by its very lines as traveling in as fine a car as any man can ask for? No, these things you have to feel for yourself, and we're delighted to help you do so. Your Buick dealer wants you to know about ROADMASTER first-hand—wants you to drive it, try it, feel it out. It doesn't cost a cent to arrange such a trial. It can do a lot toward opening your eyes to the day's highest standard of fine-car feel and fine-car action—not to mention "why pay more?" prices. How about seeing your dealer right away?

ARMED FORCES BUILDING UP U. S. MANPOWER

Washington, July 21 (AP)—The armed forces worked swiftly today to build up their fighting manpower, backed by action on both sides of Capitol Hill to strengthen the military machine still further.

The Marine Corps has called up all the ground forces in its organized reserve—amounting to some 47-

000 officers and men.

The Navy said several of its air reserve units, numbering about 9,000 officers and 30,000 men, are going on active duty.

The Army alerted combat troops in each of the six continental areas for movement to the Far East.

May Lift Ceilings
The Air Force indicated it might order some reservists into uniform after a week or so.

As the fighting services speeded plans to expand their strength to the full 2,005,822-man limit authorized by Congress, the House and Senate Armed Services committees weighed proposals to lift that ceiling in response to a request from President Truman.

At the same time, the two congressional groups studied a bill to extend the hitches of armed forces enlisted men by 12 months.

Both measures seemed assured of swift passage.

Allotments Again
Senator Gurney (R-S.D.) called meanwhile for action to restore the family allotments granted to servicemen in World War II. The allotments were ordered eliminated by Congress on a gradual basis in 1948. The announcement that the Marines were calling up reserves came late yesterday after the corps had issued apparently conflicting statements, raising doubt as to just what reservists were involved.

First a spokesman said selected units had been told they would be called up within 10 days. That was followed by word that all organized reserve ground units were alerted for active duty within 10 days. Finally, the Marine Corps announced:

Army Alerts Units
"All organized Marine Reserve ground units are being called to active duty"—and an official said the call "is now going out."

The conflict appeared to have resulted from uncertainty about what could safely be announced under security orders issued last week regarding troop movements in the United States.

The Navy announcement said: "The Navy is recalling several units of the organized air reserve to active duty immediately." Officers said the orders already had gone out.

The Army's announcement said

ADMINISTRATION GUNS AIMED AT WAR PROFITEERS

By JACK BELL

Washington, July 21 (AP)—The possibility of price-wage controls was discussed in administration circles in Congress today. Lawmakers demanded action to take the profits out of the Korean war.

Most of these demands came in the form of proposals for early enactment of an excess profits tax aimed at profiteering.

But one administration official who declined to be quoted by name told a reporter that unless there is a recession in rapidly increasing prices, controls of that nature may not be far away.

President Truman left the road open in his Wednesday message to Congress to call later for such curbs on the economy but they were omitted from the administration's defense production bill.

Begin Hearings Today
Administration lieutenants said they have the votes lined up to get only that "several combat and supporting units" from each of the six Army areas, in addition to those previously announced, have been alerted for movement in the near future to the Far East.

that measure approved by the Senate Banking committee late next week, although they conceded they may have to make changes in some of its provisions.

Some Republicans complained that the powers requested by the President are too broad. Some Democrats said they don't want Congress to vote authority in the bill for the government to go into competition with private business.

Senator Douglas (D-Ill.), a member of the Banking committee which will begin hearings on the economic control bill Monday, told a reporter he thinks the best way of avoiding price controls is to cap increased taxes on those who might be tempted to profiteer in war production or in consumer goods.

Remove Army Limits
Speedy approval seemed on the way, meanwhile, for two military measures—to take all statutory limits off the size of the armed forces and to hold all men in uniform an extra 12 months. House and Senate Armed Service committees both took up the bills.

The Commerce department cancelled all existing licenses to ship U. S. goods to Communist China.

American officials said plans are being studied to put more western Europe factories to work producing weapons and military supplies.

The State department issued a "white paper" detailing evidence that the "brutal blow to the peace of the world" dealt by the Communist invasion of Southern Korea was clearly caused by Communist aggression.

When the Barbary sheep, the only wild sheep in Africa, suspects he is in danger, he does not flee. Instead, he remains motionless, trusting his color to blend with the surroundings to conceal him.
